

REFUGEE IN CHAINS JUMPS SHIP, TRAMPS TO LONDON

FOODLESS FOR FIVE DAYS: SAVED BY TWOPENCE

A GERMAN refugee who broke out of shackles in the liner Westerland at Southampton a few minutes before she sailed for Antwerp, dived through a porthole, swam 300 yards to the shore, hid in a timber yard for two days and walked 74 miles without a penny in his pocket and without being able to speak a word of English arrived in London recently. He had not eaten for five days.

It was reported that he was a Dutchman named Martinus Telling, deported from America as an undesirable.

His name is Alfred Torge, 33-year-old film artist, and he was fleeing from the Nazis to America with a Dutch passport.

CHAINED TO A WALL

His passport was not in order and he was sent back from Ellis Island in the German ship.

"I was a stunt artist and worked for German film people. I got into trouble with the Nazis for making films with Jewish people and decided to leave.

"In Holland I bought a Dutch passport with the name of Telling. I intended to get to South America, where I hoped to find work.

"I got as far as North Africa. There I saw German munitions being imported for Franco's army. I suppose they didn't like me seeing such things, so I was arrested and taken to Rotterdam in a German ship.

"The German Government tried to get me back to Berlin but the Dutch Government refused. I went to Belgium, raised some money by working and decided to go to the United States.

"I got as far as Ellis Island, where they said my passport was not in order. They handed me over to the Westerland.

HACKSAW HIDDEN

"During the whole voyage I was kept in irons with one hand chained to the wall of the cabin.

"An armed guard stationed outside the door told me that if I made an attempt to escape he would shoot me.

"But they hadn't found a hacksaw file which I had tied to my leg with a piece of bandage. During the nights I saw away gently at the shackle on my wrist.

"After a few days I was free. Then I set to work on the iron bars of the porthole.

"The hacksaw blade was nearly worn away when I managed to break the bars.

"Late on Monday night the ship went into Southampton. I thought this would be my last chance. I knew that if they got me back to Germany they would put me in prison or perhaps shoot me.

"I knew that if the guard found I had broken the shackles and the porthole bars it was all up, and that if he saw me climbing through the porthole he might shoot.

"Outside I could see the lights of Southampton. I didn't know how far it was, but I am a good swimmer.

LEPT IN CHURCH

"I hoisted myself to the porthole and dropped into the water. I struck out for the land.

"People were shouting and I think the guard must have gone into the cabin the moment I left.

"I swam towards the darkest place until I touched a kind of pier.

"It was terribly cold and I could hardly haul myself out of the water. There was no one about and I ran across a railway and found myself in a timber yard.

"I hid among the wood for two days. I was desperately hungry and perished with cold. After two days I decided to try to reach London.

"Luckily I found an old coat. My wet clothes had dried and this made me a little warmer.

"I wandered into the streets and no one noticed me. Then I found the London road and set off.

"I drank from streams, but even if I had dared to ask anyone for food I couldn't have made myself understood.

"I reached Winchester and found the door of a church open. I staggered inside and fell asleep. At four o'clock in the morning—I think it must have been Thursday—I went out and started walking again.

"Next night I found an empty charabanc and in that had five hours sleep.

"All the time I was afraid someone would come up to me and arrest me. I thought if only I could get to the Paramount News Studios in London they would tell me what to do and help me. I had worked for the company in Germany.

"I struggled on all through Friday night and found myself in Putney High Street. I went to a telephone booth and found the Paramount number. The exchange girl couldn't understand me.

"Then I spoke French, which she knew.

"But I had no pennies to put in the box.

"I went outside, not knowing what to do. Then I saw an old Jewish woman. I asked her if she could let me have twopence for the telephone. She gave it me at once.

"I telephoned to the studios and they fetched me in a car. I know the English authorities will be all right with me now they know who I am. I am so glad it is all over."

Police are taking care of the man until his fate is decided by the aliens authorities.

PITIABLE

Mr. G. T. Cummings, editor and manager of British Paramount News, arranged for Torge to have a bath and shave and sent to his own home for a complete outfit of clothes for him.

"His condition was pitiable," said Mr. Cummings. "We gave him milk and food, but he didn't have much at a time after being without food for so long. He must have a wonderful constitution to have walked all those miles with nothing but water in his stomach."

"I telephoned Berlin and found that he was well known to our people there as a film artist. Then I explained that we would notify the authorities of his arrival here.

"He certainly needs some sympathetic treatment after his ordeal. We shall try to see if anything can be done for Torge, and if it is possible for some organisation to look after him in the event of the authorities allowing him to remain in England."

Itinerant Put On Itinerary

El Centro, Cal.

One case of Tackett vs. Tackett on the court docket here that wasn't a divorce case. It was the case of Patrolman Jack Tackett who tackled Tommy Tackett, itinerant, and haled him before the judge. The judge decided there were too many Tacketts in town and ordered the itinerant Tackett to keep on his itinerary.

"I reached Winchester and found the door of a church open. I staggered inside and fell asleep. At four o'clock in the morning—I think it must have been Thursday—I went out and started walking again.

"Next night I found an empty charabanc and in that had five hours sleep.

Two Ends But No Middle!

Mr. Justice Hawke, president of the London Cornish Association, said at the annual dinner in London last month that the two most beautiful counties were the most easterly and most westerly.

One was Kent, the other they could guess.

Out of Kent came Sir Walter Monckton, Attorney-General for the Duchy of Cornwall.

Sir Walter said that between the Duchy and Kent there was nothing but waste.

43 JEWS WANDER IN THE SNOWS

Vienna, Apr. 18.

Forty-three Austrian Jewish refugees—some children of eight, others old men and women of eighty—are stranded in a mountain hut near Murska Sobota, a village in the human's-land between Jugo-Slavia, German Austria and Italy, unable to seek refuge over any frontier.

They were expelled with 450 other Jews from Burgenland, Eastern Austria, on April 10. They wandered homeless to the Jugo-Slav frontier.

They are living now in the snows, in a sister's hut, about 25 ft. long by 18 ft. wide. They have no clothes other than those they stand and sleep in.

Food is sent to them with great difficulty by Jugo-Slav Jews who subscribe to feed them, and risk the bullets of frontier guards to get the food to them.

Even so they are short of food and medical requirements. Several are sick, some with dysentery. It is feared that the dysentery may spread.

As Jews the wandering forty-three cannot return to Germany. They cannot enter Jugo-Slavia or Italy because they have not the necessary visas.

The chief rabbi of Jugo-Slavia has applied to the British authorities in Palestine for their admittance there.

Broken Back Is Mended

—By Breaking Again

Thirty-seven-year-old James Carberry, of Darfield-avenue, Bradford, little more than a month ago was a helpless cripple, his back broken, cast in a steel vest. The least movement brought him agonising pain.

James Carberry was a steel erector—until he fell 20ft. to the ground. The bones of his spine were broken, but the spinal cord was intact.

So James Carberry lived... in his vest of steel... helpless... for twenty-one months.

Then he heard of Mr. H. E. Kennard, Harley-street bonycutter, and he came to London.

Mr. Kennard put him under an anaesthetic and broke his back again. He reset the injured bones. "And in a month," Mr. Carberry told the Daily Mirror "I was as right as rain."

BANTAMWEIGHT BOUT
Little Dado Secures California Title

Oakland, May 18.

Little Dado, 110 lbs., of Manila, won the bantamweight championship of California to-day when he defeated the stable "Early Birds" and also Wonning, owned by Dr. F. A. van Woerden. The latter stead is looking quite well, but if Mr. van Reede, without prejudice, is going to take the pony out, the chance of presenting his card to the two judges is not very bright.

Good Races Expected At To-morrow's Meeting

(By "Captain Foster").

Katinka will be mounted by Mr. Encarnacion and the combination does not, of course, require any introduction: I fully expect to see a fine race.

STYME SEEMS GOOD ENOUGH TO WIN HERE

Second Leg Of Daily Double

In the second leg of the daily double, which is on the Nanling date, for subscription griffins of this season classified in the "E" class over half-a-mile, we have a list of 16 entries to pick the other half.

The condition of this event does not preclude the ponies that have won races at Macao such as Mongolian Cat and Styme and judging by the Arca Pista form my vote is on Styme. Palmer belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Stanton can just manage to last the distance, but with a bad start, I am afraid that the guy will disappoint. I like Split Hand from the stable "Early Birds" and also Wonning owned by Dr. F. A. van Woerden. The latter stead is looking quite well, but if Mr. van Reede, without prejudice, is going to take the pony out, the chance of presenting his card to the two judges is not very bright.

WEST RIVER HANDICAP

Laughing Buddha Not Out Of Race

Laughing Buddha was discussed as a non-stayer, but in looking over the book of form, I found that the black mare, at this time last year, won the Taiwan Bay Handicap.

On Saturday, June 3, 1938, Royal S. Saltan and R. S. Capell lost to Chan S. Chung, 10-6; lost to Pang and Mok 6-2; lost to Lin and Kwan 3-0.

On Sunday, June 4, 1938, Royal S. Saltan and R. S. Capell lost to Chan S. Chung, 10-6; lost to Pang and Mok 6-2; lost to Lin and Kwan 3-0.

W. M. Gittins and A. Duncan drew with Chan and Wu 6-0; lost to Lin and Kwan 8-7.

L.R.C. v. SOUTH CHINA

The match between Indian Recreation Club and South China was postponed.

There are 20 ponies and anything may happen. The draw of the positions is the main factor and we keep on eye on Ebony Idol, Estover, Good Morning, Meteor, National Good, Tabby Cat and Yum Sling. Meteor and National Good, are both winners of the Wong-Nei-Chong Stakes over half-a-mile and they are very fast at the gate. They are well in the handicap, but Good Morning is the danger. The latter, with Mr. S. L. Yuen, gave a good display in the Bon Vista Handicap at the Easter session and by virtue of his wins, Good Morning has been penalised a stone. This may hinder his chance but we can rely on the brown gelding to give us a good run for the money. We must not forget our old racer—Racing Boy—and this old fellow will show several subscription griffins of this season how to run a sprint.

LAST EVENT

Biggest Field Of Day Expected

The biggest field of the afternoon will be seen in the last event, the Peiho Handicap (second section) for "D" class China ponies and it is a fast run from the 1½ mile post.

NEW BILL ROBS WORKING MAN OF HIS BACON

Government Accused Of Making Eleventh Commandment

The Government, according to Mr. H. Holdsworth, Liberal member for South Bradford, has produced an eleventh commandment—"Thou shalt not give the people what they want at a price they can afford to pay."

He was moved to say so during a debate in the House of Commons last month on the Bacon Industry Bill, which proposes to spend £1,000,000 a year of the taxpayers' money in the next three years in an attempt to put the industry on its feet.

If the price of food for pigs rises beyond a certain point, the taxpayer will make up the difference. If the price of bacon falls beyond a certain point, he will come to the rescue of the farmer in the same way.

At the same time—to keep up prices—imports of bacon are to be restricted, and power is given to a Development Board to restrict home production as well and to impose fines up to £500.

"REGIMENTED"

Mr. Holdsworth laughed a hearty Yorkshire laugh when Mr. Morrison (Minister of Agriculture) declared, in moving the Second Reading, that the industry was not to be regimented in any way.

"Not to be regimented!" he protested, holding up a copy of the Bill. "Why there are 62 pages of regimentation. The whole Bill is a challenge to individual liberty. A non-judicial body is to have the power to inflict heavy fines—power that should be exercised only by our Courts."

He was equally indignant about the Government's policy of raising the price of bacon by producing artificial scarcity.

"The consequence is," he asserted, "that bacon has largely disappeared from the working man's breakfast table."

He admitted that the Bill had some good points, but the price they had to pay for them was too high.

SUPPLY RESTRICTED

An equally critical reception was given to the Bill by Mr. Tom Williams, for Labour. He moved an amendment regretting that the Bill did not plan for an abundant supply under conditions which enable everyone to benefit.

He had little faith in the reorganisation scheme. The Government, he said, pretended to set out to reorganise the industry, but reliance was really placed on the power to restrict imports.

Sir Edward Ruggles-Brise (Con., Maldon) and other Tory agricultural members, generally supported the Bill, but though more financial help might have been given.

The Labour amendment was defeated by 183 votes to 126, and the Bill was read a second time.

Parents Who Banished School Cane

Grey hairs will predominate at a dinner which will be given in London this month.

It will be the jubilee of the Parents' National Educational Union, which was founded in 1888 by Miss Charlotte M. Mason.

Miss Mason's aim in life was to end the regime of the schoolmaster's cane, to end the eternal list of "don'ts" which made school life unhappy in those days, and to free children from the rule of fear.

Most of the grey-haired men and women who will assemble have been educated at schools run on lines laid down by Miss Mason. They will recall their school days in speeches and contrast their own experiences with those of present-day children.

The dinner will be held on May 12 at Claridge's Hotel. The joint presidents will be the 80-years-old Marchioness of Aberdeen and Temair and Lord Alastair Graham, and they will receive the guests.

The list of pupils of schools run on the Charlotte Mason system reads like a page from Debrett, and several young relatives of the Queen and of Queen Mary are being educated on that system now.

NEW TYPE OF SCHOOL

All Lady Aberdeen's children were brought up on the Charlotte Mason system, which cares nothing for text books and relies on learning directly from nature and literature.

Miss Mason was an invalid living at Ambleside when she had the idea of a new type of school which would draw out the intelligence of children rather than whack in a lot of miscellaneous information at the end of a cane.

Her idea shocked her contemporaries, but in spite of illness which made her almost bed-ridden, she persisted and saw her plans take concrete form.

The jubilee will be celebrated by a conference, a thanksgiving service, and a performance of a Greek play by pupils, in addition to the dinner.

Three years after defeating Helen Jacobs in the British tennis championship at Wimbleton, England, Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, above, has dusted off her racket and is intent on a comeback campaign. The former world's queen is shown as she boarded a train at San Francisco for the East. She plans to tackle the Wightman Cup matches first.

STOCK MARKET REPORT

The Hongkong Stock Exchange official summary, issued at 3:15 p.m. yesterday, reads:

During the day a few stocks gave way on their opening quotations. This induced buyers to become rather cautious, and in consequence they revised their ideas of prices on a somewhat lower scale.

BRIDE SAW HIM RIDE TO DEATH

A bride of six months knew joy—and tragedy—as she watched the Dulverton Hunt point-to-point races at Morebath, Devon, recently.

Proudly, she saw her husband, 25-years-old Mr. John Lloyd, of Spring Grove, Wellington, Somerset, get a good start in the members' race.

She saw his horse, Guardsman, gamely fight to loosen the lead which another horse had gained, as the field swept out of sight.

Then the riders reappeared—but her husband was not among them.

With his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lloyd, of Whitechapel Manor, South Molton, she saw a doctor and an ambulance drive to the seventh fence.

There young Mr. Lloyd was found lying dead.

FIRST CRASH

He had been thrown and the horse's hoofs had crushed him.

Commander F. G. Glossop, secretary of the hunt, said:

"Mr. Lloyd had ridden Guardsman many times. In last year's members' race he finished second on him."

"His wife and parents were also keen riders."

"During the four years we have had races on this course we had never had an accident at the seventh fence."

The list of pupils of schools run on the Charlotte Mason system reads like a page from Debrett, and several young relatives of the Queen and of Queen Mary are being educated on that system now.

NEW TYPE OF SCHOOL

All Lady Aberdeen's children were brought up on the Charlotte Mason system, which cares nothing for text books and relies on learning directly from nature and literature.

Miss Mason was an invalid living at Ambleside when she had the idea of a new type of school which would draw out the intelligence of children rather than whack in a lot of miscellaneous information at the end of a cane.

Her idea shocked her contemporaries, but in spite of illness which made her almost bed-ridden, she persisted and saw her plans take concrete form.

The jubilee will be celebrated by a conference, a thanksgiving service, and a performance of a Greek play by pupils, in addition to the dinner.

CHINA'S "FRIENDLY" ENEMY

Great Britain deeply deplores the slaughter of civilians and of captured Chinese soldiers by the Japanese attacking force at Amoy, according to a British Wireless despatch. And, in spite of the Japanese denials that any such things occurred, there is bound to be a strong reaction against the nation which is making war upon China on the pretext of combatting Communism and making it possible for friendly Chinese to co-operate with Tokyo in exploiting the republic. For unfortunately for Japan, all the denials and excuses which can be made will not remove the conviction that the present war is being prosecuted with a ruthlessness parallel to that displayed by the most bare-faced conquerors of history. Moreover, denials are of little avail against eye-witnesses' tales of atrocities. The story of the massacre of civilians rounded up following the bomb-throwing incident which killed seven Japanese on the Amoy Bund, and the subsequent slaughter of more than 100 of these prisoners, has possibly not yet been circulated in Britain. The official protest only concerned the alleged shooting of captured soldiers and the machine-gunning of refugees, dreadful enough in themselves, but, in the height of battle, not quite so calculatedly cruel as the execution of scores who must have been innocent of any crime—except, perhaps, that they may have been close enough to see and approve the throwing of the bomb. And who will blame them? Their country is invaded, their homes destroyed.

The ghastly and inhuman practices of the fighting men in Spain are bad enough; but there is no attempt to hide the fact that those responsible are prompted by a white-hot hatred which stops at nothing, and each side is determined to utterly destroy the other. There is no mealy-mouthed apology by either General Mola or General Franco when shells and bombs wreck civilian homes and hospitals and churches. There is a certain almost admirable defiance in the attitude of both sides towards third powers which are allies of neither. But, probably more than any other reason, the nearness of the outrages in the China war make for sharper and more frequent criticisms of Japan in this

"Why is it," a critical inquirer said the other day, "that you newspapers continue to attack the Japanese for their treatment of their enemies, when the same sort of thing is happening in Europe and doesn't cause half the bother?" There are several reasons; and the least important is the feeling that British interests are bound to be affected by the depredations upon China. Japan is

Will Roosevelt be President a third time?

—that's what people are asking as the President once more startles America. By pumping millions into a new public works programme, he puts a new spring into world trade.

WHEN crabbily gage on his third trip to the White House, how much more, he doesn't run again, say those George Washington came to the end of his second term as America's first President they begged him to run again.

Angry at attacks from the news-letters, homesick for the old plantation which he had left eight years in the care of slaves, Washington declined, retired to Mount Vernon to die.

Time has woven a beautiful, but quite unconfirmable, legend around that half-selfish decision. Any American to-day will tell you that the father of his country refused a third term because he was afraid too much power would turn even the most honest men's eyes towards a crown.

From the legend has grown America's only—and therefore most cherished—tradition. No President may run for a third term of office.

Will Franklin Delano Roosevelt break the rules, do what Ulysses Grant tried and failed to do, what Theodore Roosevelt was afraid to do, what Calvin Coolidge did not choose to do—accept the nomination, he will undoubtedly receive in 1940 to run for a third term? And if he does, will he be re-elected?

Americans are asking themselves those two questions.

SOME ask those questions apprehensively. If Washington was afraid a man might slip a crown into his lugwaging this undeclared war steadfastly maintaining that she has only the welfare of China at heart, and that the aim is to cultivate the friendship of the Chinese people. The first Japanese to make this assertion may have been sincere; but latterly, in the eyes of foreign observers of Far Eastern events, the excuse has become a mockery of truth. There can no longer be any doubt about Japan's aims in China. There can no longer be much doubt but that the promises of "an open door" are going to be side-stepped. The plans for vast monopolies in the occupied areas are proof enough of that.

The ghastly and inhuman practices of the fighting men in Spain are bad enough; but there is no attempt to hide the fact that those responsible are prompted by a white-hot hatred which stops at nothing, and each side is determined to utterly destroy the other. There is no mealy-mouthed apology by either General Mola or General Franco when shells and bombs wreck civilian homes and hospitals and churches. There is a certain almost admirable defiance in the attitude of both sides towards third powers which are allies of neither. But, probably more than any other reason, the nearness of the outrages in the China war make for sharper and more frequent criticisms of Japan in this

All his work will be ruined if who ask these questions anxiously be afraid in these days of coups, isms, dictatorships.

Has not this man Roosevelt, this "awful demagogue," shown already ambitions that call for an American Brutus? Has he not tried to kill business, in the democratic American sense of the word, by Government meddling and restriction?

Does he not threaten the very life of the great corporations, built by the pioneering enterprise of the few, by taxation and Nazi-flavoured anti-trust laws?

Is not the Tennessee Valley Authority, Government-operated competitor of Big Business's utility companies, a signpost on the road to Rooseveltian Fascism? Does not the New Deal employ a propaganda "Ministry" of 236 Press agents all just as efficient—and dangerous—as Germany's Professor Goebbels?

Yea, this man Roosevelt is dangerous, say those who ask the questions apprehensively. Of course he will be offered a third term. Of course he will take it. Unless we of the upper crust can unite to beat him, New Dealism will take its place on the world's totalitarian map, already stamped with Fascism's black, Nazism's brown, Communism's red.

Others ask those questions apprehensively. What is going to happen to us if Roosevelt doesn't run again? they ask. Roosevelt brought us out of the wood that Hoover let grow wild. Roosevelt gave us jobs, and if there weren't any he created them.

He stopped child labour, sweat-shops. He stopped banks closing their doors more often than opening them.

He stopped the rot in Wall-street. He closed the back door of the White House to string-pulling economic royalists. He made America a better place to live in.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By Lichy

"we can't play cow and robbers, fellas—we ain't got nobody to take the part of lawveral!"

Mrs. Roosevelt, a successful columnist, lecturer and author, has all she wants from the White House. All her family have good jobs (so good that one un-gallant Congressman said of Mrs. James Roosevelt: "Even the old mother is in the baking powder ads") and have proved themselves enough to hold them.

Her favourite son, James, his father's liaison officer, is so established he can take a governorship, or, better still, his father's old job, Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

Mrs. Roosevelt, above all a perfect wife, is afraid for her husband to renew his lease on the White House. If the President were any one else he would be a permanent invalid.

As it is he tries to do as much physically as he does mentally. It has aged him already (compare a photograph of 1932 and one of to-day), and another term may affect his health.

Party chiefs will also advise Roosevelt to step aside, even if he still controls his successor from the wings. They are afraid that Democrats, opposed to some of Roosevelt's policies, will take advantage of the third term legend to vote against him.

WILL Roosevelt do it again if he does run for the Presidency?

It all depends.

New York's raspy-voiced little mayor, Fiorello LaGuardia, would like to move from City Hall to the White House. He created a party—the American Labour Party—for that purpose.

If he decides to run against Roosevelt in 1940 he will not be elected, but he may prevent Roosevelt from being elected.

In his smashing victory over Governor Alf Mossman Landon in 1936, Roosevelt polled 27,000,000 votes against Landon's 17,000,000. The landslide for Roosevelt was the largest in history, and so it can be assumed that the opposition's vote was its rock-bottom.

The opposition would, therefore, presumably poll at least the same number of votes. LaGuardia would take a lot of labour votes away from Roosevelt in the vitally important eastern States.

In those States splitting of the vote between Roosevelt and LaGuardia would, under America's complicated electoral system, give victory to the opposition.

Roosevelt is confident—his enemies say, conceited—enough to think he could still win.

If it is a straight fight between Roosevelt and any one the Republican Party like to select, Roosevelt will win.

Roosevelt is as popular as a case of measles in New York. They jeer him in the news-reels, cheer stoutly, forgotten Hoover to spite him.

They tell vulgar stories about him. They curse him at home and abroad. But New York is not America.

In America at large there are thousands of farmers, ditch-diggers, negroes, lower-bracket wage-earners who would put a cross against Roosevelt's name whatever happened.

Reliable surveys show that at this moment, when, from living in New York, one would think Roosevelt was the most unpopular man in America, his popularity actually has dropped only four per cent. from its 1936 peak.

Roosevelt can, and probably will, do it again.

BRITAIN'S OLDEST WOMAN, 108, THROWS A GAY PARTY

And She Waited On Her Guests Hand And Foot

By Joan Goldthorpe

To be waited on hand and foot by a little old lady of 108 when you yourself are in the twenties is embarrassing, but that is what happened to me at Mrs. Ann Stansall's birthday party at Mansfield, Notts, recently.

They call Granny Stansall one of the most independent women in Mansfield, and after watching her swing her big black kettle from the hob, and carry in a shovel of coal from the backyard I think they are right.

At her party Granny recalled the penny-farthing bicycle days, croquet, pig-tailed Jack tarts, the reigns of George IV, and of five other monarchs, the abolition of slavery, and press gangs, as if they were incidents like to-day's football matches.

Claimed to be England's oldest woman, Granny celebrated her birthday in a grand purple and black striped blouse and black satin apron.

A DUKE'S TELEGRAM

From nine in the morning Mansfield folk flocked to the little St. John's-place cottage to congratulate their granny.

Hundreds of congratulatory cards and letters from complete strangers littered the sideboard, and also telegrams from Stansalls all over England.

In a prominent position were two from Sir William Brindshaw and the Duke of Portland.

The Mayoress of Mansfield called for a chat at midday, and Granny's cup of happiness was full.

Until late in the afternoon people poured into the cottage with flowers, bags of sweets, biscuits, fruit, and bottles of wine.

CHILDREN'S GIFTS

Little children came with posies of primroses and forget-me-nots, and the greengrocer sent a couple of Jaffas.

Queening it at the top of the table, the little old lady gossiped solidly through the meal, so that her white-haired "children," as she calls her friends, could not get a word in edgeways.

"You are only chicks, you see," she said, "and so that old hen must do all the cackling."

The "babies" of the party were her 40-years-old grandson, George Frost and her niece, Polly Maloney, aged 53.

HER HOBBY—WORK

Since she was 100, Grandma has lived by herself in her little cottage making her own bed scrubbing and mopping the floors, washing curtains and towels, and cooking most of her own food.

And the house is as clean as a scotch-washed shell.

"Work is my hobby," she told me. "Working at something you like is the secret of happiness."

With nearly a century of hard work behind her, Granny should know.

"I went out to service when I was 10. I did not have much schooling, child, so I cannot read or write, but my days of service were like heaven to me."

Up at eight every morning, she goes to bed about nine or ten. She likes to potter around, and sometimes just sits by the fire day-dreaming.

Her first flight in an aeroplane seven years ago she treated quite as a matter of course.

"I do not owe a penny," is Granny's favourite boast.

"Lions are the only people I hate," she says. "You cannot look your doors against a lion."

Another grannym is "Courtesy is a cheap investment."

And the most beautiful memory of all her 108 years?

"Big field of mauve-flowered fox under a moonlit sky," said Granny, a little girl again, hurrying to her Irish homestead.

Leaving her birthplace, Newry, in County Down, Ireland, Colleen Annie Lochern of the long brown hair ("So long I used to give my master's gardening boy twopence a week to comb it for me"), followed her employers to Derby when she was 30.

At the age of 34 Annie met John Stansall, of the coach builders Holmes, at a party, and a year later, in a navy silk wedding dress, accompanied him to church.

For 55 years Annie and John were together, spending only two days apart.

Of their five children only Jack in Canada is left.

FIFTEEN WOMEN CRASH IN LIFT
At Corset Factory

When fifteen women, laughing together after listening to a concert in the assembly hall at Spirella Corset Works, Leitchester Garden City, Herts, crowded into a goods lift to go down to the dining-room, one night, the lift shattered and crashed forty-five feet to the bottom of the shaft.

Six women were taken to Letchester Hospital. Three were detained with sprained and dislocated ankles.

Mr. A. L. Peterson, managing director of the factory, said afterwards: "Luckily there are no serious injuries."

EMPIRE NEWS

MORE U.S. FILMS IN AUSTRALIA

Melbourne.

The report of the Commonwealth Film Censor, Mr. Creswell O'Reilly, shows that there is a steady increase in the exhibition in Australia of American films. The British films shown declined from 27 per cent. of the total in 1934 to 20 per cent. last year.

The percentage of cuts and rejections in British films increased slightly, while the American percentage decreased from 52 in 1933 to 15 last year. The quality of Australian film production is disappointing in spite of the encouragement given by legislation in New South Wales.

ST. LAWRENCE DEEP WATERWAY

Ottawa.

The waning interest of the Canadian Government in the St. Lawrence deep waterway scheme is indicated in a White Paper tabled in the House of Commons today.

Negotiations for the construction of the waterway were opened between Canada and the United States in 1931, but three years ago a bill sponsored by President Roosevelt was defeated in the House of Representatives. A year later the United States offered to reopen negotiations. The Canadian Government acknowledged the offer, but it was never

IMPORT DUTIES RAISED

Wellington.

Higher import duties are announced to-day on Australian and Canadian manufactured goods as part of a wide revision of the New Zealand Customs tariff which comes into force to-morrow. There are no increases under the British preferential tariff except on footwear. The duty on British footwear, other than rubber, is raised from 20 per cent. to 24 per cent., or 3s. a pair, which-ever is greater.

Mr. Walter Nash, the Minister of Finance, Customs and Marketing, states that the increasing volume of imports has necessitated further protection for New Zealand industry. He paid a tribute to Australian and Canadian good will.

Australian goods affected fall into 60 categories, and the increases range from 5 to 20 per cent.

The duty on South African wine is increased from 3s. 6d. to 5s. 6d. a gallon, while the embargo on Australian citrus is lifted.—Reuter.

INCREASED VOTE FOR DEFENCE

Cape Town.

An increase of £189,250 in the Union's defence vote, bringing the total to £1,844,000, is the most striking feature of the Government's expenditure from Revenue funds for the current financial year.

The gross deficit on the vote actually amounts to £251,250, but this has been reduced to £189,250 by minor savings. The additional provision for defence results from the necessity to contribute an extra £2,600 to the aircraft replacement fund, and to set aside £40,000 for the artillery and machine-gun replacement fund. The sum of £22,750 is also required for miscellaneous services.

At the age of 34 Annie met John Stansall, of the coach builders Holmes, at a party, and a year later, in a navy silk wedding dress, accompanied him to church.

For 55 years Annie and John were together, spending only two days apart.

1938: Bigger And Better Monsters

First Loch-Ness-Monster-glimpse of 1938 was recorded recently from Fort William. First positive appearance has four witnesses—the Rev. Leslie R. Wilson, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Fort William, and three Edinburgh friends.

When they were returning by road to Fort William recently they saw a disturbance in the waters of the loch. "Near the middle of the loch we saw six black humps, each sticking about four feet out of the water," said Mr. Wilson. "I should say the animal would be about forty feet long."

"It played about in the water for five minutes, setting up a terrific commotion like boiling water."

Herbert Marshall Sued For £50,000

Singer Says He "Stole My Wife's Love"

New York, Apr. 21.

HERBERT MARSHALL, British film star, is being sued for £50,000 damages by Eddy Brandt, singer and song writer, for the alleged alienation of Mrs. Brandt's affections.

Mr. Marshall was as unruffled as ever when the news was revealed.

HOW MEN KEEP HOUSE

Cooks On Bonfire In Garden

For 15 years the four brothers Attrill have done all the housework, cooking, and gardening at their home at Fittleworth, Sussex.

George, aged 61, has done all the cooking—in the garden on a bonfire, summer and winter.

Frank, aged 60, has looked after the garden.

Alfred, aged 54, has helped in the house, where

Ben has been in charge of the housework.

Frank, aged 50, has looked after the housework, and the brothers have died.

When a Sunday Dispatch correspondent called on them, Frank was out, but with his duspan and brush to talk, but George, who was returning from doing the weekend shopping, said

"We are all bachelors and intend to remain so. We won't have any women here."

SAIGON FOOTBALLERS SCORE ANOTHER VICTORY

Good Races Expected At To-morrow's Meet

Careful Distribution Of Poundage Ensures A Fine Day's Sport

MAJORITY OF EVENTS ARE SPRINT RACES

(By "Captain Foster")

With the exception of the Brisbane Spring Handicap over the champion course and the West River Handicap (first and second sections) over a distance from the two mile post, once round and sections), the remaining six contests on the card of the Fifth Extra Race Meeting to be held to-morrow at Happy Valley are from six furlongs and under.

It will be recalled that the main cause of the general upsets at the last meeting was traced to short distance events, and with a careful distribution of the poundage, racegoers may look forward to a good day's sport. The adjustment of the handicaps, with an increase of a few pounds to the good 'uns and with a liberal deduction of the lead to the unfortunate "Also Rans," has not left any loophole and punters may find it difficult to spot the winners. To-morrow's event will be the penultimate meeting of a series of six extras under the auspices of the Hongkong Jockey Club before the recess. The main feature of the Whitsun Carnival (two days of racing to be staged on June 4 and 6) will be a special dollar cash sweep on the Lantao Handicap, which hitherto was a classic for the "D" class China ponies. However, I do not hold out much hope that this lottery will eclipse the magnificent one which was conducted on the Hongkong Derby run on February 21, but judging by the response which it learned, is now nearing the one hundred thousand mark, I am prepared to wager that the sale of tickets on this special dollar cash sweep on the Lantao Handicap will double that of last year's figure of 67,300 chances.

OPENING EVENT

Yangtse Handicap For China Ponies

The Yangtse Handicap, which is the opening event confined to China griffins that have not won more than $1,500 in stakes, is a sprint over six furlongs. I have no information on Elizabeth, belonging to Sir Vandeleur Grayburn, nor have I got a line on Pinfarthings, owned by Mr. C. E. Brown; for both of them have never been under the starter's orders. In preparation for the Annual Race Meeting the latter has had a few creditable performances, but the chestnut pulled up lame about the end of January and Pinfarthings was on the walking list for a considerable time. I doubt he and Elizabeth will face the start to-morrow, for I have good reason to believe that they will be kept over for next year's classic. Judging by the early morning outings it seems to me that Mr. Encarnacao has given preference to Expression Time and therefore a jockey has yet to be found for Just in Time. The latter is the public down very badly in the Mount Davis Handicap (first section) for "C" class China ponies, but it is to be hoped that he will put up a better show to-morrow. Handicap Eve (Mr. H. C. Pih) is on the low mark and should the black mare reproduce her annual form, she should win. Be careful Rose Jane (Mr. Poy) who is nicely weighted at 140 lbs.

ROSE-QUEEN HAS A GOOD CHANCE

IN West River Race For "C" Class

It seems that Rose-Queen is now in her proper class, for the mare ran a good third at the last meeting over a short trip, but the run to-morrow in the West River Handicap (first section) for "C" class China ponies is from the two mile post, once round and in. Although carrying the limit load, Rose-Queen (Mr. Encarnacao) has a good sporting chance to score her first win of the season, but the real danger, I am afraid, is Tyne. With Commencement Bay out of the road, Tyne (Mr. B. L. Tao) was only a length and a half behind the former in the Kellett Handicap over 1 1/4 miles, but the time of that contest was 2:34 which was indeed a fast race for "C" class runners. Tyne was then

W.A. BROWN STARTS AT LAST

Cricket Tourists Play Northants

London, May 19. The only one of the Australian cricket team's acknowledged batsmen not to have scored a century in the present tour, W. A. Brown got going at last in the match against Northamptonshire, scoring 104 not out in the Australians' innings of 400 for six declared.

Don Bradman failed for the first time, being dismissed for two runs. C. L. Badcock, who had 72 out of a total of 128 for no wicket during yesterday morning's play, was sent back without any addition to his score when the match resumed to-day.

At close of play, Northants had 139 on the board for the loss of three wickets, Nelson scoring 74.

KENT v. GLOUCESTER

At Gillingham, Gloucester defeated Kent by 169 runs. Gloucester totalled 221 in their first innings, to which C. J. Barnett contributed 98. Wright took seven wickets for 77 runs. In reply, Kent made only 133. Goddard claiming seven victims for 57.

In their second knock, Gloucester declared at 208 for nine wickets and dismissed Kent for 127. Goddard again got among the wickets, taking six for 50.

SURREY v. DERBY

At the Oval, Surrey defeated Derbyshire by 68 runs.

Surrey scored 182 and 174 (Rhodes 5 for 50, George Pope 4 for 36), and Derby made 94 (F. R. Brown 6 for 44, Berry 4 for 15) and 194 (Brown 5 for 91).—Reuter.

carrying 181 lbs. and he has the same burden to-morrow. I fancy him because the rest of entries will, in my estimation, be running out of their distance. It is worth considering that Amberley, King's Bounty, Laughing Girl and Scenic View are all under the 145 mark and they are sure to cause some anxiety to the topweights.

ELECTION TIME FAVOURED TO WIN EASILY

Peiho Handicap For "D" Class

The first scramble will be in the Peiho Handicap for "D" class China ponies from the 1 1/4 mile post (about half mile 170 yards) and the handicapper has assigned 17 ponies to the first section. Election Time, the winner of the Talmoshon Handicap (first section) at the last meeting, holds the post of honour while Gold Coin, who annexed the second section, has to shoulder 150 lbs. The former likes this distance and should be in the limelight at the finish. Gold Coin is also dangerous, but the mare is capable of letting you down for no earthly reason and I dislike young damsels running with a hood. However, when they met in the Talmoshon Handicap, the difference of weights between Election Time and Dekko (second) was nine pounds in favour of the latter whereas to-morrow Election Time has to carry 168 lbs. but Dekko has to draw the scale at 163 lbs. Of these two "grins" I am of the opinion that Dekko (Mr. Proulx) is in the one to have your money on, for his performance in the Pakfulan Handicap over six furlongs was a grand show. He got home first in 1:31.9/0 which was a good time for a sub-griffin. Final Triumph (Mr. Poy) should not be neglected, for he was well up behind Salvago Master (winner) and Desert Star (second) in the Boa Vista Handicap over six furlongs and the time of that contest was 1:30.2/6. There are several other good speed merchants at the lowest impost such as Araxy, Borachito, Foil Ying, Lucky Eleven, Plot Heim and Zero and should anyone of this bunch break the tape on the move, the good 'uns will have something to think of.

SHING MUN HANDICAP

First Leg Of Daily Double

The first leg of the daily double is on the Shing Mun Handicap for "B" class China ponies over six furlongs and we are bound to have a good field. The distinguished Soldier of Britain, who was recently demoted to this division, will no doubt add interest to the event, but it looks to me that this "Tommy

Mr. H. E. Morris' Pasch continues to rule a heavy favourite for the Derby, despite the impressive victory of Sir Abe Bailey's Golden Sovereign in the Newmarket Stakes which moved the latter horse up to the position of second favourite. This picture, taken recently, shows the fine lines of Blandford's handsome son, with Gordon Richards holding the reins.

British Davis Cup Team Strengthened

Jones Dropped In Favour Of C. E. Hare

London, May 13.

The British Davis Cup team has been strengthened for the second round match against Yugoslavia at Zagreb on May 20 to May 22.

Jones, who failed in both his singles against Roumania, has been dropped in favour of C. E. Hare, who was unavailable for the first round.

With Mr. Roper Barrett as non-playing captain, the British team against Yugoslavia is composed of Butler, Hare, Shayes and Wilde.—Reuter.

Atkins' is not yet due for a win. Mr. Li Lan-sang has five nominations, the cream of his string being Humdrum Eve who will be ridden by Mr. H. C. Pih, and I hear that all others will accept. After his brilliant achievement in the Deep Bay Handicap when he covered six furlongs in 1:20.3/5, I cannot figure out anything to beat Humdrum Eve. It should be borne in mind that when he romped home first, he was carrying 163 lbs. but to-morrow Mr. L's chestnut gelding has to weigh out at 157 lbs. and with a deduction of eight pounds of lead Humdrum Eve should run faster. The strong challenger will be Confusion Bay, who has not appeared in public after annexing the Canton Handicap over the same jaunt in 1:27. On a soft going, I have not seen Confusion Bay for a long time nor am I in a position to say that he is in the pink of condition, but I have good reason to believe that the bay stallion of Mr. L. Dunbar will not come under the starter's orders. New Star is well tuned to concert pitch, but the stallion has some good weight to carry and he will have the same jockey—Mr. S. W. Tang. Potentate, it is learned, will weigh out with Mr. Encarnacao at the wheel while Jober will have Mr. Gregory in the saddle. My fancy is Humdrum Eve.

Pennink's selection as a member of the British team to meet America in the forthcoming Walker Cup match at St. Andrews is an absolute certainty.

WEAK PUTTING

The first half of the match was a story of the most feeble putting imaginable on the part of Pennink, and a brilliant short game by Banks. The fact that Pennink took thirty-eight putts for a round as against thirty-one by the Yorkshirer speaks for itself. Towards the end of the round, when he finished one up, the Champion regained a measure of confidence on the green.

Pennink was always superior in driving and the long second shots to the green.

In the second round he only once made a slip on the greens, taking three putts to lose the twenty-first to Banks. Apart from being bunkered at the twenty-eighth, and putting his iron shot in a ditch on the thirty-first, Pennink was just as accurate in the long game as in the first round.

He drove the longer ball, but his big advantage was in his greater accuracy in approaching the green, and including his two 6's, he only needed 73 for the seventeen holes played in this round, as against Banks's 74. This time the players had an equal number of putts.

AZTEC MAY MAKE AMENDS IN THIS RACE

Wallsend Handicap For Australians

We should witness a good tussle in the Wallsend Handicap for Australian ponies that are not classified in the "C" class and who have not won more than $1,000 in stakes since January 1, and the excursion is over six furlongs. Aztec was well ahead behind Home Brew in the Charters Towns "B" standard, but since the latter has been promoted to the "A" division, Aztec should be able to make amends tomorrow, and furthermore the course is to her liking. We must not, however,

DEFEAT ARMY COMFORTABLY BY THREE NIL

VISITING DEFENCE TOO STEADY FOR OPPONENTS

(By "Abo")

Though their speed was somewhat retarded by the heaviness of the ground, the Saigon football tourists nevertheless had the measure of the Army eleven at Causeway Bay yesterday and finally emerged victors by three goals to nil. The visitors led by goal lead, followed by Van in the 20th minute. Leading by three-nil, the Saigon team conceded a penalty for a foul on Grogan by Cui, but Watson, who went up to take the kick, shot hopelessly wide.

Teams: Saigon—Tinh; Duoc, Cui; Van, Bui, Pacquin; Guchard, Quang, Tot, Van and Dal. Army—Duncan, Watson, Sheehan; Freshwater, Proctor, Courtney; Grogan, Gordon, Hossack, Saw and Colvert.

SCENES AT SHANGHAI BOMBING

Considerable confusion followed the throwing of two bombs at the corner of Foochow Road and the Bund, Shanghai, recently, resulting in injuries to several Chinese, but without fatalities. Upper photo shows members of the Reserve Unit taking up positions after they had been called to preserve order following the outrage. Lower photo shows a section of the large crowd gathered outside the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank's Foochow Road entrance, one of the bombs having exploded a few yards away on the Bund intersection.

Miss Helen Lee, famous Chinese film star, enjoys a sunbath. Recently she made a big "hit" in the film "The Amazon", and for her work was presented with a poem specially written for her by the noted Chinese scholar, Dr. Kang Hang-fu.

VICEROY TO VISIT N.W. FRONTIER

New Delhi. The Viceroy, the Marquess of Linlithgow, is proposing to visit the North-West Frontier in April. He will leave New Delhi for Peshawar on Easter Monday.

The spring thaw has now set in on the frontier, and the so-called "shooting season" is reopening in Waziristan. In spite of certain unfavourable factors, the outlook on the whole is promising for a peaceful summer. It is never safe to prophesy what the tribes will do, but at present the credit of the Fakir of Ipli is at its lowest ebb. His efforts to stir up the tribesmen have receded on his own head, and several decisions have been taken to co-operate with the authorities and give the Fakir no further support.

In the past few weeks several of his former henchmen have voluntarily come in and given securities for their good behaviour.

On the other hand the Mudda Khel tribes, on the upper reaches of the Tochi River, have been unable to give securities for the good behaviour of the Fakir, who is sheltering in their midst.

South Africa

CENTENARY OF GREAT TREK

Cape Town. Ten tenders, ranging from £159,000 to £330,000, for building the Voortrekker monument on a hill near Pretoria, have been received. The successful tenderer will be announced on Monday. This year is the centenary of the great trek by the Voortrekkers.

Engineers Wanted.—Qualified road engineers are so much in demand in South Africa that the Cape Provincial Administration may have to seek men from overseas.

May Election Contests.—Every one of the 99 Parliamentary seats in Cape Province will be contested by a United party nominee at the General Election on May 18. The Nationalists are contesting 39 constituencies, the Dominion party 10, and the Labour party six.

Aerodrome Conversion.—It is proposed to convert the aerodrome at Youngsfield, Wynberg, into a military air station with hangar accommodation for 36 aircraft, gun detachments and battery staff.

Film for Glasgow.—A film is being made of South Africa's electrical achievement to be shown at the Empire Exhibition at Glasgow.

STEAMER FEARED SUNK

Port Louis. The Port authorities here fear that the local steamer Aggar, 420 tons, was sunk in a cyclone on the night of March 12, between Mauritius and Madagascar. She was carrying three passengers and a crew of 39, and had a cargo of 150 bullocks. She last gave her position on March 12, when directly in the path of the cyclone.

The Clan Line steamer Banffshire, 6,479 tons, left here yesterday to search for the missing vessel. She will visit the extremely lonely island of Tromelin, to where survivors may have drifted.

Australia

IRON ORE EXPORTS

Perth. Objection to the proposal to ban the export of Australian iron ore was voiced to-day by Mr. J. C. Willcock, Premier of Western Australia. He declared: "The reaction of my Government to a Federal ban on the export of iron ore to Japan from Yampi Sound is entirely unfavourable. I have protested against any precipitate action before the ban is imposed." The proposal for a ban arose from a fear of shortage for Australia's needs. An exhaustive inquiry into the full extent of the country's resources is to be held.—Exchange.

A brown-haired Hungarian girl told of her love for a married man at the Old Bailey, when Arthur Vladislav Chambers, 34, radio engineer, was found guilty of forging and uttering a summons issued by the Registrar of the Kingston County Court. Sentence was postponed till next sessions.

"You must have nothing more to do with the girl. Fortunately she has been saved from you," said the Commissioner, Mr. C. C. Whiteley, K.C., to Chambers.

Mr. G. B. McClure, prosecuting, said that in December Chambers and the girl, who was 19, became attached to each other. Chambers told her that he was married and had a child, but was anxious to divorce his wife.

The girl's parents asked Chambers to wait until he obtained a divorce before the matter went further.

INJUNCTION THREAT

Finally, the girl's father said to Chambers, "I will give you 10 days to think this matter over. If you are insistent on meeting this girl you must come here once a week. After that I must take advice about my daughter's interest. I may have to get an injunction to prevent you meeting this girl."

On December 21, Chambers asked the girl to go away with him. She refused. He then produced the document alleged to have been forged.

STOP PRESS NEWS

Occupation Of Hsueh Completed Japan Claim

Shanghai, May 20. The Japanese headquarters here officially announces that the occupation of Hsueh has been completed.—Reuter.

Occupied Yesterday!

Shanghai, May 20. The Japanese Army officially announces that Hsueh was completely occupied yesterday.

Chinese military headquarters, however, continue to deny that Hsueh has been occupied. Details from Chinese headquarters are most vague, and are mainly based on denials of the existence of a wall around Hsueh which the Japanese claim to have demolished.—United Press.

Charge Japan Using Gas Near Yungchen

Hankow, May 20. Chinese forces advancing southward from the Lungshui Railway in the direction of Yungchen reached the northern suburbs of that city yesterday, according to Chinese reports.

The reports add that Japanese artillery inside the city is shelling the Chinese positions.

A Chinese military communiqué states that when the Japanese troops were hard pressed by the Chinese at the village of Watzekou, near Yungchen, they used poison gas.

Japanese troops at Luhuang, east of Lanfeng, have been repulsed, but a few hundred Japanese are holding out at villages near Yifeng.

Chinese despatches claim that between 3,000 and 4,000 Japanese troops were repulsed on Wednesday night after a severe engagement at Chien-houshiblou.—Reuter.

No Public Reservations For Review

Hongkong continues to clamour for reservations to the public enclosure at Happy Valley to see the King's Birthday review, and the authorities wish to emphasise that because no reservations are being made for this particular enclosure it is useless applying for tickets.

A certain area on the Race Course is being set aside for the general public, but in order to obtain a good position here people should arrive early.

ENLISTMENT EXTENDED

Tokyo, May 20. The War Office has promulgated a departmental decree, extending the service of infantrymen and members of the ambulance corps who enlisted in 1936 until further notice.

The extension of the periods of service is designed to replenish Japanese military forces in China and Manchukuo.—Reuter Special.

CHINESE AIRCRAFT "RAID" OSAKA

LEAFLETS, NOT BOMBS, SCATTERED

Neither Planes Nor Guns Even Attempt To Intercept Fleet

It is officially reported that, for the first time in history, Chinese planes have crossed the China Sea and flown over Japan.

The machines, which flew from a secret rendezvous in Central China, made a flight over Kyushu and Honshu islands in Japan, including the city of Osaka.

They made no attempt to bomb Osaka or the other places visited, but scattered thousands of handbills.

The official statement said that the Chinese planes flew to Japan late last night, spending several hours over Japan in the early hours of this morning.

No Japanese planes took off to meet the invaders, and there was no Japanese anti-aircraft fire.

The only sign of any air raid precautions was a complete blackout of Osaka.

All of the Chinese machines returned to their base safely.

"WE HAD YOU AT OUR MERCY"

It is officially stated that the Chinese pilots were instructed to refrain from bombing.

They dropped innumerable pamphlets which, written in Japanese, stated: "We had you at our mercy. China is strong and undefeated."—United Press.

OVER NAVAL BASE

A Reuter message, confirming the United Press report adds that the Chinese planes flew over the Sasebo Naval Base near Osaka.

CHINESE BESIEGE PAOTING

Guerillas Active At Hopei's Capital

Chengchow, May 20. Reports received here to-day confirmed the Chinese siege of Paotting, provincial capital of Hopei. It is stated that more than 90 Japanese soldiers have been killed as a result of Chinese guerrilla activities in the vicinity of Paotting during the past few days.

Suspected of being guerrillas who had filtered into the city, 400 Chinese civilians have been executed by the Japanese, it is alleged.

Following an encounter with Japanese units in the outskirts, Chinese guerrillas have succeeded in breaking into Shihchieshwang, important city in west Hopei, on the Peiping-Hankow Railway. Street fighting is reported.

In Chahar, Chinese mobile units are pressing on Hwaihai, on the Peiping-Suyuan Railway. They succeeded in routing the Japanese troops in a village in the immediate vicinity of Hwaihai and captured a large quantity of Japanese munitions.

Taking the Japanese by surprise, a Chinese mobile column descended on Chou, south-east of Kalgan, recently and inflicted heavy losses.—Central News.

AIR DEBATE NEXT WEEK

London, May 10. The debate on the Opposition's motion for an adjournment of the debate on the Air Defence Bill, which was adjourned from to-day in a adjourned from to-day, will take place on Wednesday, May 12.

Furious Fighting Continues Around Hsuehchow

His Excellency the Governor and Lady Northcote on May 18 visited Cheungchau to inspect the Haw Par Hospital. But the distinguished visitors were keenly interested, too, in the Pai Tek Temple, and in this photograph are studying a mural.

Vast Chinese Army Facing Annihilation, Japan Claims

Shanghai, May 20. Fifty Chinese divisions, including ten divisions of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's crack troops, are facing annihilation in the Hsuehchow area, where they are completely surrounded.

This claim was made to-day by Japanese official sources.

After the occupation of Hsuehchow the Japanese claim they found 3,000 dead Chinese troops inside the city, and the bodies of another 4,000 on the surrounding hills.—Reuter.

Union Party Has Clear Majority

Capetown, May 20. The results of the South African elections up till now show that the United Party, now in power, has secured a clear majority over all the other parties taken together, having won 77 seats while the remaining four parties have so far only won 14 seats together.

Among those re-elected is General Smuts who, in his constituency in Transvaal, polled 75 per cent. of the total number of the votes.—Trans-Ocean.

SPY TRIAL WITNESS VANISHES

Former German In
U.S. Important
To Prosecution

New York, May 20. Dr. Ignatz Griebl, former German intelligence officer and a naturalized American, an important witness in the impending trial of seventeen members of an alleged international spy ring, has mysteriously disappeared.

It is reported he has gone to Germany aboard the liner Bremen, without the knowledge of his wife.

Mrs. Griebl scoffs at reports that her husband was spirited away.

She declares he is on a business trip and will return in three weeks, but the fact is that she did not know the date.—British Wireless.

JAPANESE BOARD AMERICAN VESSEL

Shanghai, May 20. A group of Japanese soldiers yesterday afternoon boarded a Texas Oil Company launch, No. 1, which was moored down-river from Shanghai, and beat the Chinese crew.

The object of their search was not disclosed.

The seventeen Chinese aboard apparently bothered the soldiers, who set upon them, in spite of the efforts of four foreigners in the ship to prevent them.

All the Chinese have been admitted to St. Luke's Hospital. Two of them have broken arms.—United Press.

Inquiry Into Tragic Mine Explosion

London, May 10. The Recorder of Leicester, Mr. P. E. Sardis, who became a King's Councillor in 1935, has been appointed Commissioner to conduct the Inquiry into the causes of the explosion at Martham Colliery on May 10, in which 70 men lost their lives.

The Chief Inspector of Mines will act as assessor to the Commission.

This appointment recalls a question addressed to the Secretary for Mines when he first announced the disaster to the House of Commons on the day of the explosion. A miners' member asked if, to give fullest public confidence that most searching investigation would be made into the causes of accident, an independent chairman would be appointed to conduct the inquiry.

In informing the House of Commons of his decision to-day, Captain Crookshank added that the appointment did not imply any intention to discontinue the practice by which, in a normal way, such inquiries are conducted by the Chief Inspector.—British Wireless.

PRIME MINISTER IMPROVING

London, May 10. Mr. Neville Chamberlain, who has been suffering from a mild attack of gout, was stated to be much better to-day.—British Wireless.

LAMA'S JEWELS STOLEN

Precious Possessions Of Late Tibetan Ruler Vanish

Shanghai On Watch For Suspect Gang

Shanghai, May 20. Shanghai Municipal Council detectives have been instructed to keep a lookout for two Tibetans and a Chinese who are alleged to have stolen the jewels belonging to the late Panchen Lama.

It is alleged that the jewels were stolen from the personal effects of the spiritual leader of the Tibetans during March, the three men escaping to Shanghai from North China when the theft was reported to have taken place.

The two Tibetans were formerly personal servants of the Panchen Lama, while the Chinese suspect is thought to have worked for the Lama as a secretary.

Although the exact value of the jewels alleged to have been stolen is unknown, they are stated to include several valuable gems, as well as a priceless rosary collection believed to be worth a considerable fortune.—Reuter Special.

DESPERATE CHINESE RESISTANCE

Japan Claim City Wholly Occupied

Shanghai, May 20.

The Japanese Army authorities are going to settle, once and for all, the confusion regarding Hsuehchow.

Official Japanese claims are emphatic that the entire city has been occupied. Chinese Army sources are equally emphatic that the Japanese are far from their objective.

At 9.15 a.m. to-day, a Japanese plane, carrying four responsible foreign journalists, left Shanghai to visit Hsuehchow and the Lunghai Railway war fronts.—Reuter.

Expect Further Withdrawal Of Chinese Government

Tokyo, May 20.

The fall of Hsuehchow will render future defence of Hankow and the Lunghai Railway impossible, military observers here stated to-day.

They believe that Chinese administrative offices at present in Hankow will be compelled to remove to the hinterland.—Domei.

Gallant Stand

Hsuehchow, May 20.

The Chinese are still making a gallant stand at Hsuehchow.

Fighting desperately, the Chinese are attempting to dislodge the Japanese artillery units at Pauwangchow in the western suburbs, from where they are continually bombarding the city.

Bitter fighting is said to be taking place at Lanfeng, Heng, Lichwang, Ltsai and Yangtsai east of Tungshang on the Lunghai Railway, where Japanese raiding parties have reappeared in an attempt to cut the railway line.

Neliang station, east of Lanfeng, on the Lunghai Railway, was re-

MORE RAIN EXPECTED

Hongkong was several degrees cooler this morning, following the thunder storm, the Royal Observatory reading at 10 o'clock being 76. But humidity had advanced to 92 per cent.

The Royal Observatory weather report stated that the anti-cyclone is unchanged over China, and the depression is moving into the Pacific to the east of Japan.

Local forecast: South winds, moderate; cloudy generally, occasional rain.

SMALLPOX

Let's Consult the Cards, shall we?

SHOULD you fix that appointment for Wednesday or Friday? And would Monday be a good day to ask your friend (well, she was your friend once) for the return of that small sum of money you lent for a little while back?

You can settle all problems of this sort quite easily with the aid of a pack of cards! The following method of card fortune telling shows you just how to plan your week, namely, which are your good days and which are the ones from which you can expect little or nothing.

Take a pack of cards, shuffle them well, and then cut them with the left hand into three heaps, face downwards on the table.

Now remove the top card from each heap and place them in a row, also face downwards, on the left-hand side of the table, the top card of the left-hand heap being the first in the row.

What the Suits Mean

THE cards are now plucked up—not the three which you have placed in a row; the table you gather up the cards (with the exception of those which have been discarded), shuffle and cut them, and then deal them out once more in sets of three, again discarding any set which does not contain one or more of the fate cards.

This process is repeated five times, so that you finally get a row of nine cards, face downwards, on the table in front of you.

The next step is to turn up the two cards at the opposite ends of your row and see what they have to say about your prospects for the following day.

All you've got to remember is that Clubs always signify good fortune. Hearts success in love, Diamonds in money, and Spades a warning that trouble lies ahead.

When the two cards belong to different suits the one on the right refers to the morning and the one on the left to the afternoon.

Forecast for the Week

THUS, if the right-hand card is a Spade and the left-hand one a Diamond, the inference would be that a hopeless dawn would be followed by a financially successful afternoon.

Fourteen of the fifteen cards in your row are turned up in this way, two at a time; so that when there is only one card remaining (this will of course be the centre card in your row) you will have examined your prospects for each day of the week.

Your Wish

AND now here is another and quicker way of finding out whether your wish is going to come true. For this method you require only thirty-two cards—the full pack minus all plain cards under seven of each suit.

The thirty-two cards are shuffled and cut with the left hand. You then re-form the pack and deal out three cards at a time face upwards on the table.

Now what you want to be able to do, eventually, is to turn up, in as few deals as possible, the four Aces, parsely sprigs.

Perfume Should Match Your Mood

YOU have new clothes—and a new "face" perhaps—with which to greet the new season. But to complete your preparations perhaps you need a new perfume as well?

If you have never bothered very much with perfume or if you have used the same rather uninteresting scent from schoolgirl days, then why not try some of the new perfumes before you decide that they are not for you!

Perfume when discreetly used adds the necessary touch of glamour to a becomingly dressed, attractive woman, and when she enchooses perfume altogether her charm is never really complete.

Light And Elusive

WHEN we hear a woman say she doesn't like perfume, she generally means that she doesn't like heavy, exotic scents. But she will probably fall in love completely with one of the light, fresh scents which are offered to-day.

The modern flower perfumes are fresh and light without being sweet and cloying, and if you like something just a trifle less simple, then there are the scents of a whole bouquet of flowers all blended together, which may prove to be your choice.

There are numerous other perfumes, too, not necessarily those of flowers, which are very light and gay and "feminine," and you may find that one of them is just the thing which you are seeking.

For sports occasions there are out-of-doors scents which have an indescribable "tang" which is in harmony with the smell of burning wood or the scent of pine needles trodden underfoot.

Blended For Sports

MOREOVER, some of these sports perfumes are specially blended so that they do not become stale when they have been used sparingly, upon the actual fabric of your suit itself.

Other women, of the exotic, sophisticated type will like the rather heavier perfumes which enhance the charm of their personality.

But whether you select a light or heavy perfume will depend, ultimately, upon your own taste.

Whatever experts may say in the matter of "matching" a scent to your own personality, in the end, the scent which really suits you is the one you love the best—and you can only find it by testing tiny smears upon your wrist, until you discover the perfume of your choice.

EXPENSIVE ways of making up inexpensive furs spell the success of those capes which go over party frocks this season.

Indian lamb is a superior fur, but not over-expensive made on bolero lines. Or it is seen as just an extra, large collar.

Other fur cape designs show boxed shoulders, and they are made from furs which are frankly white rabbit.

Russian kid is used for muff and cape ensembles, and these are as suited to party frocks as spring mink coats on chilly mornings.

But if the fur cape is to serve a dual purpose, white would not be a good choice. Cocoa-dyes are better.

If you like spinach—try this savoury

FIRST prepare and cook about 1½ lb. spinach. Then drain and chop it up, adding two table-spoonsfuls of white sauce, made with flour, milk and butter.

Heat the spinach and bind it with the yolks of two eggs. Leave it to cool.

Next, make a paste similar to the paste macaroni is made of, with ½ lb. flour, a pinch of salt, 1 oz. of butter, one egg yolk, and a little water. Leave for twenty minutes, then roll out thinly.

With a teaspoon take nuts of sauce, and bake for fifteen minutes.

Spinach on the paste. Molten the intervals with a brush dipped in beaten egg and milk. Cover the whole with a lid of this paste.

Press between each portion of spinach to solder the paste, and cut out the little cakes (their real name is, ravioli) with a fluted paste cutter. Dip them in flour, and plunge in boiling salted water for five minutes.

Arrange in a buttered dish, a little water. Leave for twenty minutes, then roll out thinly.

ACTIONS AGAINST TENANTS

Four actions brought by landlords against their tenants for possession of premises were mentioned in the weekly calling-over list of cases before Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, at the Summary Court, this morning.

One of the complainants was a solicitor, Mr. A. S. K. Lau, who claimed possession of 4 Lincoln Road, Kowloon Tong, from Mr. A. E. Ablong. The tenant rented the premises at $120 a month. The case was adjourned for one week.

Lo Shu-fan, tenant of 1 Hill Road, ground floor, was ordered to quit the premises within three weeks on an action brought by the landlord, Mr. S. M. Churn.

Defendant stated that the notice to quit was received by his wife as at that time he was in the country visiting tombs. The notice was served on April 2, and since his return he had been looking for another place but had failed, despite every effort.

Mr. C. Y. Kwan, who appeared for the landlord, said there was no question of arrears of rent. In fact defendant had offered to increase the rent to $70 from $63, but his client had to refuse, much to his regret, because he wanted the premises for his business. Defendant had been given ample time to leave—in fact until yesterday.

Defendant told the Court he had been living in the premises for four years. He had looked round everywhere but could not find another place.

Mr. Kwan said he was prepared to give another two weeks, but His Lordship extended the time to three weeks and ordered meane profits up to the day of possession.

Defendant said he had spent about $500 on repairs to the premises and if he were to remove he had to spend another large sum to take away between 20 to 30 loads of stuff as he was a mason.

His Lordship: I take it the landlord would not attempt to claim the fixtures as his?

Mr. Kwan: I have no such instructions. My client wants the house back only for his own business.

An action against the Sam Hing firm, of 49 Sing Wo Road, ground floor, brought by Luk Kwan-hing, was adjourned to Chambers tomorrow on the absence of defendant. The landlord also claimed $35 arrears of rent and meane profits.

DENIED RENT ARREARS

An allegation by her landlord, Wong Kan-tak, that she was three months' rent in arrears was denied by Chan Chi-pan, of 21 Nga Chin Wai Road.

Defendant said he rented the premises at $15 a month and received a notice to quit on Mar 11. She did not owe the landlord $45 as alleged in the writ, which was served after she had paid all the rent.

His Lordship pointed out that the writ said defendant originally owed $100 in rent but since April 11 she had paid $55, leaving $45. Defendant did not agree to this, and Mr. Peter H. Sin, who appeared for the landlord, said that all the money paid was for arrears of rent.

The case was adjourned until 2:30 p.m. on Monday for defendant to produce the receipts.

FREE FIGHT IN CONNAUGHT
ROAD

Ten Swatow Chinese appeared before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Magistracy this morning charged with fighting at Connaught Road Central, near the Douglas Wharf yesterday afternoon.

Detective-Sergeant D. Davies said that the free-for-all fight started when a party of coolies from Kowloon tried to get an assignment which the local coolies were about to get.

Iron rods, bamboo, and a pipe tubing of about five feet in length were shown to his Worship. They were picked up at the scene after the fight.

STABLE MAFOOS
IN QUARREL

Arising out of a quarrel between two Shanghai Chinese mafios at the Hongkong Jockey Club stables on Wednesday night, Wong Yat-yum, 35, appeared before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Magistracy this morning, charged with inflicting grievous bodily injury on Sia Fong-lam.

Detective Sub-Inspector Darkin applied for a week's remand, as the injured man was still in hospital.

CHINESE CONTINUE
SHANSI ADVANCE

Tungkwan, May 20.

Launching simultaneous drives from the north and south of the city, the Chinese are closing in on Hotsin, north-west of Yunglo, in south-west Shansi. Hard-pressed, the greater part of the Japanese garrison has been withdrawn.

Meanwhile, fighting is still raging in Yungcheng, north-east of Chiehsien in south Shansi, and Linfen, about 100 miles south of Taiyuan, with the Chinese maintaining steady pressure.

About 200 Japanese troops and 40 trucks moving westward from Fengyang, in central Shansi, were ambushed by Chinese soldiers on May 16. Following a two-hour encounter, the Chinese dispersed the enemy and seized over 50 rifles and a large quantity of provisions, and destroyed five Japanese trucks.

Chinese guerrillas have been very active in north Shansi during the past few days. On the night of May 17, they descended on the Japanese in a village near Yuanding, south of Kuohsien, and drove away the enemy, seizing a large quantity of ammunition.—Central News.

Charge Japan Using Gas
Near Yungchen

Hankow, May 20.

Chinese forces advancing southward from the Lungtai Railway in the direction of Yungchen reached the northern suburbs of that city yesterday, according to Chinese reports.

The reports add that Japanese artillery inside the city is shelling the Chinese positions.

A Chinese military communiqué states that when the Japanese troops were hard pressed by the Chinese at the village of Watzkou, near Yungchen, they used poison gas.

Japanese troops at Laihchang, east of Lanteng, were repulsed, but a few hundred Japanese are holding out at villages near Yifeng.

Chinese despatches claim that between 3,000 and 4,000 Japanese troops were repulsed on Wednesday night after a severe engagement at Chinchihliou.—Reuters.

Street Fighting In Hofei City

Liuwan, May 20.

Reports received here late last night revealed that street fighting took place yesterday in Hofei city in central Anhwei, which recently fell into Japanese hands.

During Chinese forced their way into the city through the breaches in the city walls which they battered with artillery.

It is said the Japanese, numbering 1,500 men, have sustained heavy casualties.—Central News.

Guerillas Active In South Hopei

Minchuan, North Honan, May 20.

A Chinese mobile unit is pressing on Lincheng, mining town in south Honan.

During an encounter on May 17, the Chinese routed the Japanese garrison at Yangchiatienze in the neighbourhood of the town. The Japanese retreated toward Lincheng, leaving behind scores of casualties and many rifles.—Central News.

Chinese Successes

Liuwan, May 20.

While the position on the Hsiaochow-war front remains critical, fighting on the south section of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway continues to favour the Chinese, military advisers received here reveal.

Straggling units of Japan troops in areas north of the Hwai River have been surrounded by the Chinese.

Spirited fighting between the opposing forces raged throughout yesterday in Hsiaochienchi, a point north-west of Mengcheng, resulting in the dispersion of the Japanese by the Chinese.

On the south bank of the Hwai River, the Chinese and Japanese forces were locked in a pitched battle on the Liuhsia-Kaicheng sector south of Penghu.

Between 500 and 600 Japanese soldiers surrounded by the Chinese in Shangyao, near Kaicheng, continued to hold out in the city. The Chinese have further tightened their cordon.—Central News.

Fighting Resumed At Taishu Lake

Tunxi, Anhwei, May 20.

After a lull of a considerable time, bitter fighting has been resumed on the Taishu Lake front.

Operating with Changting and Wusong as bases, the Japanese are attempting to dislodge the Chinese troops at Anchi, Hsiaofeng, Szean and Kuanhsien in the Chekiang-Anhwei border region.

The list of pupils of schools run on the Charlotte Mason system reads like a page from Debrett, and several young relatives of the Queen and Queen Mary are being educated on that system now.

NEW TYPE OF SCHOOL

All Lady Abergavenny's children were brought up on the Charlotte Mason system, which gives nothing for text books and relies on learning directly from nature and literature.

Miss Mason was an invalid living at Ambleside when she had the idea of a new type of school which would draw out the intelligence of children rather than knock in a lot of miscellaneous information at the end of each day.

Other Chinese units are engaging the Japanese rear. Japanese communications between Changting and Wusong have been disrupted with the recapture of Lukhsien, midway between the two towns on the Nanking-Hangchow highway. A guerrilla unit is pressing on Wusong by the Kuching-Wusong highway.—Central News.

For ideas shocked her contemporaries but in spite of illness which made her almost bedridden she persisted and set up her plant like a state farm.

CHINA'S "FRIENDLY"
ENEMYGreat Britain deeply deplores the slaughter of civilians and of captured Chinese soldiers by the Japanese attacking force at Amoy, according to a British Wireless despatch. And, in spite of the Japanese denials that any such things occurred, there is bound to be a strong reaction against the nation which is making war upon China on the pretext of combating Communism and making it possible for friendly Chinese to cooperate with Tokyo in exploiting the republic. For unfortunately for Japan, all the denials and excuses which can be made will not remove the conviction that the present war is being prosecuted with a ruthlessness parallel to that displayed by the most bare-faced conquerors of history. Moreover, denials are of little avail against eyewitnesses' tales of atrocities.The story of the massacre of civilians rounded up following the bomb-throwing incident which killed seven Japanese on the Amoy Bund, and the subsequent slaughter of more than 100 of these prisoners, has possibly not yet been circulated in Britain. The official protest only concerned the alleged shooting of captured soldiers and the machine-gunning of refugees, dreadful enough in themselves, but, in the height of battle, not quite so calculatedly cruel as the execution of scores who must have been innocent of any crime—except, perhaps, that they may have been close enough to see and approve the throwing of the bomb. And who will blame them? Their country is invaded, their homes destroyed.

"Why is it," a critical inquirer said the other day, "that you newspapers continue to attack the Japanese for their treatment of their enemies, when the same sort of thing is happening in Europe and doesn't cause half the bother?" There are several reasons; and the least important is the feeling that British interests are bound to be affected by the depredations upon China. Japan is

Will Roosevelt
be President
a third time?

—that's what people are asking as the President once more startles America. By pumping millions into a new public works programme, he puts a new spring into world trade.

WHEN crabby gage on his third trip to the White House, how much more, he doesn't run again, say those argue these people, must America be afraid in these days of coup, isms, dictatorships.

Has not this man Roosevelt, this "awful demagogue," shown already ambitions that call for an American Brutus? Has he not tried to kill business, in the democratic American sense of the word, by Government meddling and restriction?

Does he not threaten the very life of the great corporations, built by the pioneering enterprise of the few, by taxation and Nazl-flavoured anti-trust laws?

Is not the Tennessee Valley Authority, Government-operated competitor of Big Business's utility companies, a signpost on the road to Rooseveltian Fascism? Does not the New Deal employ a propaganda
"Ministry" of 236 Press agents all just as efficient—and dangerous—as Germany's Professor Gebbel's?

Yes, this man Roosevelt is dangerous, say those who ask the questions apprehensively. Of middle course is abandoned.
They may call this New Deal a high-sounding, patent medicine term. Of course he will take it.

Unless we of the upper crust can unite to beat him, New Deal will take its place on the world's totalitarian map, already stamped with Fascism's black, Nazism's brown, Communist's red.

Others ask those questions anxiously. What is going to happen to us if Roosevelt doesn't run again? they ask. Roosevelt brought us out of the wood that Hoover let grow wild. Roosevelt gave us jobs, and if there weren't any he created them.

He stopped child labour, sweat-shops. He stopped banks closing their doors more often than opening them.

He stopped the rot in Wall-street. He closed the back door of the White House to string-pulling economic royalists. He made America a better place to live in.

He wants to follow his "big stick" navy programme through to its conclusion. He wants to see success for his economic theories.

THEIR will be opposition to his accepting a third term nomination.

First against it will be his wife, Eleanor, and that is more important than it sounds to any one who has not tried to cross an American woman with her mind made up.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By Lichy

Mrs. Roosevelt, a successful columnist, lecturer and author, has all she wants from the White House. All her family have good jobs (so good that one un-gallant Congressman said of Mrs. James Roosevelt: "Even the old mother is in the baking powder ads") and have proved themselves enough to hold them.

Her favourite son, James, his father's liaison officer, is so established he can take a governorship, or, better still, his father's old job, Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

Mrs. Roosevelt, above all a perfect wife, is afraid for her husband to renew his lease on the White House. If the President were any one else he would be a permanent invalid.

As it he tries to do as much physically as he does mentally.
It has aged him already (compare a photograph of 1932 and one of to-day), and another term may affect his health.

Party chiefs will also advise Roosevelt to step aside, even if he still controls his successor from the wings. They are afraid that Democrats, opposed to some of Roosevelt's policies, will take advantage of the third-term legend to vote against him.

WILL Roosevelt do it again if he does run
for the Presidency?

It all depends.

New York's raspy-voiced little mayor, Fiorello LaGuardia, would like to move from City Hall to the White House. He created a party—the American Labour Party—for that purpose.

If he decides to run against Roosevelt in 1940 he will not be elected, but he may prevent Roosevelt from being elected.

In his smashing-victory over Governor Alf Mossman Landon
in 1936 Roosevelt polled 27-00,000 votes against Landon's
17,000,000. The landslide for Roosevelt was the largest in history, and so it can be assumed that the opposition's vote was its rock-bottom.

The opposition would, therefore, presumably poll at least the same number of votes. La-Guardia would take a lot of labour votes away from Roosevelt in the vitally important eastern States.

In those States splitting of the vote between Roosevelt and La-Guardia would, under America's complicated electoral system,
give victory to the opposition.

Roosevelt is confident—his enemies say, conceited—enough to think he could still win.

If it is a straight fight between Roosevelt and any the Republican Party like to select, Roosevelt will win.

Roosevelt is as popular as a case of measles in New York.
They jeer him in the news-reels, cheer stodgy, forgotten Hoover to spite him.

They tell vulgar stories about him. They curse him at home and abroad. But New York is not America.

In America at large there are thousands of farmers, ditchdiggers, negroes, lower-bracket wage-earners who would put a cross against Roosevelt's name whatever happened.

Reliable surveys show that at this moment, when, from living in New York, one would think Roosevelt was the most unpopular man in America, his popularity actually has dropped only four per cent. from its 1933 peak.

Roosevelt can, and probably will, do it again.

Anglo-Italian Pact's Plans May Be Blocked

FRANCE AND ITALY UNABLE TO AGREE ON SPANISH ISSUE

Britain Endeavouring To Encourage Negotiation

London, May 19.

Considerable anxiety exists in London over the lack of progress in the negotiations between Italy and France.

A deadlock has occurred due, it is believed, to Italian objections to alleged French support for the Spanish Government.

French support of the Loyalists, it is feared in London, may have the effect of delaying the withdrawal of volunteers from Spain. Without the withdrawal the Anglo-Italian Agreement cannot be implemented.

Sufficient progress, however, has been made for Lord Plymouth to begin consultations with other members of the non-Intervention Committee regarding the procedure to be adopted for withdrawal of volunteers.

In Rome, the British Ambassador, Lord Perth, has expressed to Count Ciano, the Italian Foreign Minister, the hope that Franco-Italian talks will not be suspended.

French observers are of the opinion that another reason for the hitch is the Italian refusal to confirm to France the assurances already given to Great Britain respecting the status quo in Spain at the end of the civil war.

The Italians contend that the French attitude towards Spain has not been sufficiently detached to warrant such a pledge.—Reuter.

Maintaining Agreement

Paris, May 10.

Foreign diplomatic sources announce that France intends to maintain the non-Intervention Agreement, and will refuse to permit the transhipment of arms and war materials to Spain.—United Press.

France Shows Good Faith

Paris, May 10.

The Government supports with approval the plan submitted to the non-Intervention Committee, aimed at the withdrawal of volunteers and the re-establishment of land and sea control on the Spanish frontiers.

Political circles point out that this attitude proves France's loyalty to non-Intervention, and should ease the tension engendered by the prevailing campaign of false rumours.—Reuter.

BRIDE SAW HIM RIDE TO DEATH

A bride of six months knew joy and tragedy—as she watched the Dulverton Hunt point-to-point races at Morebath, Devon recently.

Proudly, she saw her husband, 25-year-old Mr. John Lloyd, of Spring Grove, Wellington, Somerset, get a good start in the members' race.

She saw him horse Guardsman, gamely fight to lessen the lead which another horse had gained, as the field swept off of sight.

Then the riders reappeared—but her husband was not among them.

With his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lloyd, of Whitechapel Manor, South Molton, she saw a doctor and an ambulance drive to the seventh fence.

There young Mr. Lloyd was found lying dead.

FIRST CRASH

He had been thrown and the horse's hoofs had crushed him.

Commander F. G. Glosop, secretary of the hunt, said:

"Mr. Lloyd had ridden Guardsman many times. In last year's members' race he finished second on him."

"His wife and parents were also keen riders."

"During the four years we have had races on this course we had never had an accident at the seventh fence."

1938: Bigger And Better Monsters

First Loch-Ness-Monster-glimpse of 1938 was recorded recently from Fort William. First positive appearance has four witnesses—the Rev. Leslie Rule Wilson, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Fort William, and three Edinburgh friends.

When they were returning by road to Fort William recently they saw a distortion in the waters of the loch.

"Next the middle of the loch we saw this black hump, with sticking out four feet out of the water," said Mr. Wilson. "I should say the monster would be about forty feet long."

When they were returning by road to Fort William recently they saw a distortion in the waters of the loch.

The extension of the periods of service is designed to replenish Japanese military forces in China and Manchukuo.—Reuter Special.

MAJORITY OF EVENTS ARE SPRINT RACES

(By "Captain Foster")

With the exception of the Brisbane Spring Handicap over the champion course and the West River Handicap (first and second sections) over a distance from the two mile post, once round and in, the remaining six contests on the card of the Fifth Extra Race Meeting to be held to-morrow at Happy Valley are from six furlongs and under.

It will be recalled that the main cause of the general upsets at the last meeting was traced to short distance events, and with a careful distribution of the poundage, race-goers may look forward to a good day's sport. The adjustment of the handicap, with an increase of a few pounds to the good 'uns and with a liberal deduction of the lead to the unfortunate "Also Rans," has not left any loophole and punters may find it difficult to spot the winners.

To-morrow's event will be the penultimate meeting of a series of six extras under the auspices of the Hongkong Jockey Club before the recess. The main feature of the Whitsun Carnival (two days of racing to be staged on June 4 and 6) will be a special dollar cash sweep on the Lunas Handicap, which hitherto was a classic for the "D" class China ponies. However, I do not hold out much hope that this lottery will eclipse the magnificent one which was conducted on the Hongkong Derby run on February 21, but judging by the response which it is learned, is now nearing the one hundred thousand mark, I am prepared to wager that the sale of tickets on this special dollar cash sweep on the Lunas Handicap will double that of last year's figure of 67,300 chances.

OPENING EVENT

Yangtse Handicap For China Ponies

The Yangtse Handicap, which is the opening event confined to China griffins of this season that have not won more than $1,500 in stakes, is a sprint over six furlongs. I have no information on Elizabeth, belonging to Sir Vandeleur Grayburn, nor have I got a line on Pinfurtherings, owned by Mr. C. E. Brown; for both of them have never been under the starter's orders. In preparation for the Annual Race Meeting the latter has had few creditable performances, but the chestnut pulled up lame about the end of January and Pinfurtherings was on the walking list for a considerable time. I doubt he and Elizabeth will face the starter to-morrow, for I have good reason to believe that they will be kept over for next year's classic. Judging by the early morning outings it seems to me that Mr. Encarnacao has given preference to Expression Time and therefore a jockey has yet to be found for Just In Time. The latter let the public down very badly in the Mount Davis Handicap (first section), for "C" class China ponies, but it is to be hoped that he will put up a better show to-morrow. Handicap Eve (Mr. H. C. Poy) is on the low mark and should the black mare reproduce her annual form, she should win. Be careful Rose Jane (Mr. Poy) who is nicely weighted at 140 lbs.

Strathroy Should Win His Outing

Starts In Brisbane Spring Handicap

The presence of Strathroy in the Brisbane Spring Handicaps for Australian ponies of any season over the champion course has given an extra amount of work to the gentleman in charge of handing out the poundage and should he refuse to accept the second alternative list of weights framed by the handicapper will apply. At any rate Strathroy will apply. In their second knock, Gloucester declared at 208 for nine wickets and dismissed Kent for 127. Goddard again got among the wickets, taking six for 50.

W.A. BROWN STARTS AT LAST

Cricket Tourists Play Northants

London, May 19. The only one of the Australian cricket team's acknowledged batsmen not to have scored a century in the present tour, W. A. Brown got going at last in the match against Northamptonshire, scoring 104 not out in the Australians' innings of 408 for six declared.

Don Bradman failed for the first time, being dismissed for two runs. G. L. Bradstock, who had 72 out of a total of 129 for no wicket during yesterday morning's play, was sent back without any addition to his score when the match resumed to-day.

At close of play, Northants had 139 on the board for the loss of three wickets, Nelson scoring 74.

KENT v. GLOUCESTER

At Gillingham, Gloucester defeated Kent by 169 runs.

Gloucester totalled 221 in their first innings, in which C. J. Barnett contributed 98. Wright took seven wickets for 77 runs. In reply, Kent made only 133. Goddard claiming seven victims for 87.

In their second knock, Gloucester declared at 208 for nine wickets and dismissed Kent for 127. Goddard again got among the wickets, taking six for 50.

SURREY v. DERBY

At the Oval, Surrey defeated Derbyshire by 68 runs.

Surrey scored 182 and 174 (Rhodes 5 for 50, George Pope 4 for 39) and Derby made 94 (F. R. Brown 6 for 44, Berry 4 for 15) and 194 (Brown 6 for 91). —Reuter.

carrying 161 lbs. and he has the same burden to-morrow. I fancy him because the rest of entries will, in my estimation, be running out of their distance. It is worth considering that Amberley, King's Bounty, Laughing Girl and Scenic View are all under the 145 peg and they are sure to cause some anxiety to the topweighters.

ELECTION TIME FAVOURED TO WIN EASILY

Peiho Handicap For "D" Class

The first scramble will be in the Peiho Handicap for "D" class China ponies from the 1½ mile post (about half mile 170 yards) and the handicapper has assigned 17 ponies to the first section, Election Time, the winner of the Talmoshan Handicap first section at the last meeting, holds the pose of honour while Gold Coin, who annexed the second section, has to shoulder 150 lbs. The former likes this distance and should be in the limelight at the finish. Gold Coin is also dangerous, but the mare is capable of letting you down for no earthly reason and I dislike young damsels running with a hood. However, when they meet in the Talmoshan Handicap, the difference of weights between Election Time and Dekko (second) was nine pounds in favour of the latter when to-morrow Election Time has to carry 103 lbs. but Dekko has to draw the scale at 163 lbs. Of these "two grins" I am of the opinion that Dekko (Mr. Proulx) is the one to have your money on for his performance in the Pekukuan Handicap over six furlongs was a grand show. He got home first in 1:31.3/5 which was a good time for a sub-griffin. Final Triumph (Mr. Poy) should not be neglected, for he was well up behind Salvage Master (winner) and Desert Star (second) in the Bon Vista Handicap over six furlongs and the time of that contest was 1:30.2/5. There are several other good steady merchants at the lower weights such as Araxi, Borzito, Fat Ying, Lucky Eleven, Plot Hein and Zero and should anyone of this bunch break the tape on the move, the good 'uns will have something to think of.

SHING MUN HANDICAP

First Leg Of Daily Double

The first leg of the daily double is on the Shing Mun Handicap for "B" class of China ponies over six furlongs and we are bound to have a good field. The inclusion of Soldier of Britain, who was recently demoted to this division, will no doubt add interest to the event, but it looks to me that this "Tommy

Mr. H. E. Morris' Paschi continues to rule a heavy favourite for the Derby, despite the impressive victory of Sir Abe Bailey's Golden Sovereign in the Newmarket Stakes which moved the latter horse up to the position of second favourite. This picture, taken recently, shows the fine lines of Blundford's handsome son, with Gordon Richards holding the reins.

British Davis Cup Team Strengthened

Jones Dropped In Favour Of C. E. Hare

London, May 13. The British Davis Cup team has been strengthened for the second round match against Yugoslavia at Zagreb on May 20 to May 22.

Jones, who failed in both his sprints against Rumania, has been dropped in favour of C. E. Hare, who was unavailable for the first round.

With Mr. Roger Barrett as non-playing captain, the British team against Yugoslavia is composed of B. Hare, Shakes and Wilde.

Atkins' is not yet due for a win. Mr. Li Lan-sang has five nominations, the cream of his string being Humdrum Eve who will be ridden by Mr. H. C. Pilb, and I hear that all others will accept. After his brilliant achievement in the Deep Bay Handicap when he covered six furlongs in 1:26.3/5, I cannot figure out anything to beat Humdrum Eve. It should be borne in mind that when he romped home first, he was carrying 105 lbs. but to-morrow Mr. Li's chestnut gelding has to weigh out at 157 lbs. and with a reduction of eight pounds of lead Humdrum Eve should run faster. The strong challenger will be Confusion Bay, who has not appeared in public after amassing the Canton Handicap over the same jaunt, in 1:27 on a soft going. I have not seen Confusion Bay for a long time nor am I in a position to say that he is in the pink of condition, but I have good reason to believe that the bay stallion of Mr. L. Dunbar will not come under the starler's orders. New Star is well tuned to concert pitch, but the stallion has some good weight to carry and he will have the same jockey—Mr. S. W. Tang. Potentate (Mr. S. C. Liang) and Desert Star (second) in the Bon Vista Handicap over six furlongs at 1:28.2/5. The time of that contest was 1:30.2/5. There are several other good steady merchants at the lower weights such as Araxi, Borzito, Fat Ying, Lucky Eleven, Plot Hein and Zero and should anyone of this bunch break the tape on the move, the good 'uns will have something to think of.

AZTEC MAY MAKE AMENDS IN THIS RACE

Wallsend Handicap For Australians

We should witness a good tussle in the Wallsend Handicap for Australian ponies that are not classified in the "A" class and cobes that have not won more than $1,000 in stakes since January 1, and the excursion is over six furlongs. Aztec was a good second behind Home Brew in the Charters Towers "B" standard, but since the latter has been promoted to "A" division, Aztec should be able to make amends to-morrow, and furthermore the course is to her liking. We must not how-

DEFEAT ARMY COMFORTABLY BY THREE NIL

VISITING DEFENCE TOO STEADY FOR OPPONENTS

(By "Abo")

Though their speed was somewhat retarded by the heaviness of the ground, the Saigon football tourists nevertheless had the measure of the Army eleven at Causeway Bay yesterday and finally emerged victors by three goals to nil. The visitors led by a goal to nil at half-time.

In the Army players the tourists found a team which showed a semblance of combination, which was more than what they met with against the Hongkong F.A. and the Royal Navy. Still their superiority was seldom in doubt even if the final score was inclined to flatter them bit.

Had the Army forwards shown better marksmanship in the early stages of the game, they might have taken the lead and, thus encouraged, might have given a better account of themselves. But Hossack and Grogan each in turn missed opportunities of scoring. Hossack failed badly when, with the Saigon goal-keeper out of position, he ballooned the ball over the bar.

Thereafter the visiting defence settled down to play extremely steady football, and Tinh, the goal-keeper, was seldom troubled again. He was well protected by Duc and Chul, who covered each other splendidly, and with Bui in fine form in the pivotal position, the Army forwards had few chances of breaking through.

VARIABLE FORM

The Saigon forwards, however, were not as impressive as in their previous matches, the shooting being rather weak. Except for the first point, which was a full-blooded low drive by Dal, the left-winger, the other two goals were scored from close-in. Duncan was given no chance of saving them. There were periods, however, when the visitors revealed bits of their brilliant combination, and during these moments the Army defenders were completely outplayed.

As usual, Watson and Sheehan were steady without being particularly brilliant. They were troubled at times by the speed of the opposing attack, but on the whole acquitted themselves quite well. The most impressive Army department was in the intermediate line where Freshwater, Proctor and Courtney strived stoutly to keep the Saigon players in check. That the visitors scored only one goal in the first half was due in great measure to the tireless work of the trio. Proctor, at centre-half, was a useful deputy for Bright. Up forward the Army revealed a great weakness, especially in front of goal.

Saw was the guiding genius and initiated most of the raids with ideal passes to Grogan; he must have been chagrined to find all his good work come to nought. Apart from Saw, the only other forward who looked capable of shooting a goal was Culvert, on the left wing, who after watching the futile efforts of his inside-men, took a couple of pot-shots himself. Although he was seldom in an ideal position to score, he nevertheless got very near with a couple of good attempts.

THE SCORING

Dal put the visitors ahead after 25 minutes, and twelve minutes after the resumption, Tot increased the

SOCCER VISITORS HONOURED

South China Athletic Association Celebrate Their Victories

To honour the Federation Cochin Chinoise de Football Association's team, and to celebrate their winning of the local League Championship, the Senior Challenge Shield and the Kotewai Charly Cup, members of the South China Athletic Association gathered last night in the Kam Ling Restaurant for dinner.

The guests included M. Renner, Vice-Consul for France, the manager and members of the Saigon football team and several members of the Hongkong Referees' Association and Hongkong Football Association.

Following the toasts by Mr. Chan Kam-po, President of the Association, of the King, the Republic of France and the Republic of China, Mr. Mok Hing, acting Chairman of the S.C.A.A., speaking of the Saigon football team made reference to the extraordinary improvements there had been made in Saigon football since the days of the early Chinese toons ten years ago. They had improved beyond all acclamation. He commented on the uniqueness of the situation, for they had come to Hongkong with the idea of learning something about the game, but instead were remaining here to teach.

M. Michael Jean, manager of the Saigon team, thanked the S.C.A.A. for all the hospitality which had been shown to their team and expressed the hope of further visits in the future.

Mr. Chow Man-chi then dealt with the successes of the S.C.A.A. during the past year and congratulated the Association. Mr. Mok Hing responded. Mr. Wong Ka-sun proposed "Our Guests" to which Mr. J. Skinner replied.

A souvenir flag was presented to Mr. Tien, captain of Saigon, by Mr. Leung Wing-chiu, captain of South China, after which Mr. L. Nhieu added his thanks to the Association for their hospitality.

Double funeral service for the late Miss Violet Ethel Thompson and her fiance, Mr. Henry Hufner of Shanghai, who both died in tragic circumstances, was held at the Bubbling Well Cemetery last week before a large gathering of friends of the deceased, who came to pay their last respects. Upper picture shows the two caskets being wheeled by pall-bearers to the double grave after service in the Chapel. Lower picture shows Dean A. C. S. Trivett, of the Holy Trinity Cathedral, who conducted both the Chapel and graveside services, leading the two corteges.

WAR ENDS SOCIAL PROGRESS

World Faces Its Doom,
Says I.L.O. Report

Geneva, May 19.
A picture of social progress throughout the world subordinated to war preparations was painted in his annual report by Mr. H. B. Butler, Director of the International Labour Office.

The report declares that with war blazing in the Far East and Spain, and Europe again an armed camp, all thoughts of social progress may well seem more appropriate on some other planet!

What Mr. Butler described last year as a "darkening shadow" he now sees as "a threat to blot out the light from the whole world."

Mr. Butler expresses the opinion that the "boom of the Thirties" reached its peak last summer and deals in detail with the recession, unemployment and the growing importance of the Far East.

He writes: "Any long-range view cannot possibly ignore the new thing, which, amid pain and travail, is coming to birth in the Orient.

"After centuries of passivity it is being stirred by a modern outlook, with all its incalculable dangers and unlimited promise."

Predicting that Oriental competition with the Occident would continue to expand until some sort of balance was struck between the economic levels of the east and the rest of the world, Mr. Butler says that the view expressed in older industrial countries that cheap goods from Asiatic countries should be excluded whenever possible cannot be justified on long-range economic calculation.

Even the so-called Japanese menace has been exaggerated, he declares.—Reuter.

DECLARER FRANCE "DISHED"

No Undertaking
Germans Will Leave Spain

Labour M.P.'s Charges

London, May 19.

The allegation that "France had been dished" was made by the Rt. Hon. W. Wedgwood Benn, Labour Member for the Gorton Division of Manchester, in initiating the debate on Foreign Affairs in the House of Commons late this evening.

Mr. Wedgwood Benn attacked the Anglo-Italian agreement and said that there was no undertaking that German volunteers would leave Spain.

France was in the position of having to abandon the Soviet Pact and suffer the Germans on the Pyrenean frontier.

He asked whether he was right in assuming that the Italians intended to obtain a Franco victory in Spain and asked whether M. Daladier, the French Premier, was informed of this fact.

Sir John Simon, the Home Secretary, said in reply that some twenty States had recognised the Italian conquest of Abyssinia before Great Britain raised the matter at Geneva. Britain had taken the proper course of consulting the League and not making a private and special bargain.

"Even now we do not recognise the conquest, but have made clear that certain conditions must be fulfilled before we do," the Home Secretary declared.

"The promises made by Italy have

France To Take Stern Action

Paris, May 19.
The French Government is contemplating the adoption of severe measures against false reports and rumours which affect markets and the international situation, declared the Premier, M. Daladier, to-night.

M. Daladier instance, the fact as a result of rumours a certain country in Europe had ordered mobilisation, France had received an ultimatum and France had reached a decision entirely in variance with the peaceful intentions of the country.

M. Daladier emphasised his desire for peace, and his determination to assure the inviolability of frontiers. He reiterated the strength of the Anglo-French entente.—Reuter.

so far been implemented," he continued. "They withdrew troops from Libya, stopped the propaganda broadcasts in Arabic from Cairo, and are co-operating on the non-Intervention Committee.

"It has never been part of the bargain that Italian action in Spain should be unilateral without regard to what others might do."—Reuter.
